“ I am very sorry and sad to hear of the passing of Chris Craver. I didn't know him as well as most but he was a friend of good humor and taste. He liked comedy and music and treasured his friends. Words cannot even mention the loss from his passing. Just as a warning to the family do not trust those who are coming from afar asking for things that are not theirs. This is a time of grief for all and much needed blessings and renewal of spirits is wished on the Craver Family. Godspeed.##imported-begin##Mr. Insuccesso##imported-end##

“ Chris Craver(PRANO)So what to say??? Its been a few days since i heard about your passing and couldn't believe nor understand WHY?? It was alittle over 3 years ago when we met, Kel took me into the -=CCF=- family and there you were. A very strong and powerful person. I said to my self WOW this guy is going to be hard to get along with Imao. It turned out to be so opposite. We spend many night mobbing, bullshitting and talking about you waking up with the hamburger on your chest from the night before lol (ENZA loved that story) Over the years a respectable friendship grow between use and it was always Prano,Don Cos ENZA,Boss Chins and JJK in the end. GREAT TIMES. I never seen this coming not from you. Always so strong and smart. Like the world was your. I'm so sorry you suffered all these years and Sick that all those night we spend in chat you didn't ask for help or talk to us. May You Rest In Peace Chris AKA PRANO I wil Miss the chats we had and the laughs we all shared. “ Lynne, My son is Michael Kessler who just learned about Chris passing. Mike asked that i send you a note on his behalf telling you how sorry he is and wishes he could be there to tell you in person. Chris was one of the nicest friends Mike had and hopefully vise versa. He still talks about the dinner you and Chris made him before he left the area. It is hard for him to believe that he is gone and only wishes he could have been there to help him with his hurt and suffering, You are in his prayers as well as mine. “ Chris, I will never forget you! You were my first crush ever! I remember spending the night with Dotte in Morris Way and praying that you would be home, so I could see your handsome face. I remember the love you had for your family and your friends. You were always a gentleman and very courteous, yet you always knew how to have a good time. There were times when I said to you that you make my face hurt, because you always were smiling. I remember those hot summer nights at the beach with you and Dotte and the summer days on the jetski. Let's not forget my little "fall" right in front of you in the foyer, when i slipped on the wet tile and slid directly under your legs. I recall you acting as a referee motioning your arms and yelling, SAFE! I was mortified, yet you and I just laughed it off! I could go on forever of the fond memories I have of and with you, from watching you through the years build a successful business and life to the day I heard the news of your passing. You were someone I strived to be like and still do. I will never forget you and can't wait to see you again sometime. The entire Craver family is in my thoughts and prayers. I honestly,love you all very dearly and each of you own a piece of my heart! With warmest sympathy.###imported-begin###Ashley Harrelson Moore###imported-end###

“ I'm grateful, I was given the opportunity to call you my friend, even for the short time we knew each other. Thank you for making me smile as much as you did. And for sharing some of your stories with me (the silly ones - they were the best). You have this long list of traits that people adore. But I think with me, what I adored most about you was the way you talked about your mother. I thought it was beautiful. “ Chris, & Mom, Please know this,, Nor you or Chris will EVER be forgotten! As you know, Chris and I were probably best friends before we even knew what it meant to be friends. Soccer games, bikes, riding three wheelers, spending the night when you or Ms. Judy would allow, watching wrestling events, etc... I often think about my old buddy, the best soccer goalie I ever knew; well, he is with the Lord now and will be missed. Please keep your head up and remember to just celebrate the life he DID live! From talks of hotel jobs to the upscale houses we did work in. Knowledgeable person. I met Chris through a game but his personality is what pulled me in and made me feel as if I knew him all my life. “ Chris... I've been staring at this page for about 1/2 hour not knowing what to write. For the first time in my life I am speechless! U actually left me speechless! I am so sorry for the hurt and pain you were suffering these past years. I never knew nor was I able to tell.. You were always a jokster, full of life, sweet and always offering to help in anyway you could, not only on mobsters but in giving advise. I remember having some deep conversations with you about life and you always gave great advise.. Even the other day when I was telling you what was going on in my life. =(You were always offering to help but I can't understand why you never asked for help! Your suffering has ended and I hope you rest in peace! <3 p.s. I will now be an official Steelers fan. =) P.s.s... Yea yea yea I will be nice to Boss Chins too!! lol Love you! “ Friendship Tapestry So often when I think of you and all the times we shared, my heart is filled with thankfulness to have a friend who cared enough to listen to me tell of joys and trials. Your being there has been enough to change my tears to smiles. The subtle love between two friends is so hard to define. It is not a square or circle or even a straight line. It's somehow like a tapestry with colors soft and bold, yet deep within the weaving, there are tiny threads of gold. Rare and oh so lovely are your threads of gold. For they will last a lifetime, and then, when my story's told; Someone will hold my tapestry and turn it towards the light, and tiny points, those threads of gold will gleam and shine so bright. And they may think - it's just a thread like green or red or blue - Perhaps they'll never ever know that golden thread was you. But I've been thinking lately how you've touched my life just so - Of how you are so dear to me - and I wanted you to know - That your golden thread of friendship still will weave within my heart. MLAR REST IN PEACE
