“ My thoughts and prayers extend to Ed and all of Christian's family and loved ones. I remember him as a young cub scout, then boy scout on his trail to Eagle. He was always respectful and helpful at events in the Chicora District. I am also grateful that I got the privilege of teaching him his Senior year at PALM Charter High School.

“ Little boys leave footprints in our hearts. They are never forgotten. His Wings were ready,. But Your hearts were not!

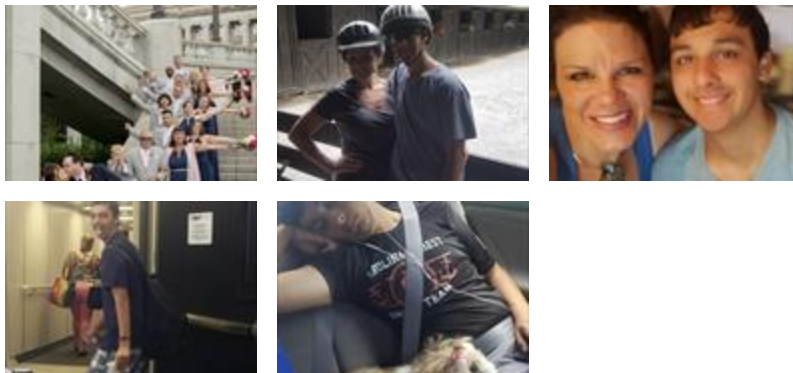

To the Suggs Family, I cannot ease your pain of loosing Christian,. I know a piece of each of you died when he passed,. As he was a special soul! Please know that each of you are in so many peoples thoughts and continued prayers to give you strength to move forward,. to cherish all those memories and special moments that will help to carry your family through. Sending you all, love and light 🙏❤️🙏

Tracee, my dearest friend. Thank you for sharing Christian with us - just having a small glimpse into your bond with him on his Virginia summer breaks ,. He always had a smile on his face ,. So upbeat! Such a jokester. I loved listening to all your great adventure. Those moments will stay with me forever! He was your mini twin!

The last memory I have with Christian was at yours and Craigs Wedding,. Dancing, talking, laughing and just having a good time. He grew up to be such an amazing young man! ❤️❤️

** just some of my favorite pics of you and him! 🙏🙏🙏

Love, Jessica

“ I'm so heartbroken for you, Tracee, and your family. I will always remember your special bond with Christian - how your face lights up at his name, how proud you are of his selfless service for our military and community and of all he's accomplished, and how deeply you love him. He's the center and purpose behind everything you do. I will always remember him visiting the office and being such a wonderful kid - so sweet, respectful, handsome, and kind. Truly a perfect kid. He's touched so many people and his legacy will live forever. He is very blessed to be so loved and adored by all, and beloved by you. Love, Sarah Fowler
