“ Uncle I’m so sorry for the loss of your beloved Chris. You were a wonderful husband and caregiver. When she could no longer see to dress herself she relied on you and you did it incredibly well. You made sure she looked her best from head to toe. She was a true fashionista. She was very proud of you for your care and concern for her. Chris had an exceptionally long and happy life. May your happy memories help now and in the day’s ahead. My sincere condolences to all her family. Annette and Geoff Van Wie

“ My condolences to the family. A light in this world has been dimmed. I am so thankful for having known this precious lady. I met her at Heritage Bible College in the early 1980s. She was a huge influence in my life and my husband’s (Bobby) lives. I will never forget the wonderful visits we had with her in Conway and going to church with her. I remember sitting at her kitchen table and eating the best roast, butter beans and rice that I have ever eaten. We would laugh and sing. She came to NC to sit in as honorary grandmother at my wedding. My husband’s grandparents had all passed away and she came to do that just for us. I enjoyed our phone conversations so much. She always made me feel special and loved. My heart is heavy and light all at the same time. I can only imagine the celebration in heaven. I can almost hear her and Bob singing around God’s throne. I love you Gran, you will be missed. Your legacy lives on through the lives that you have touched. See you at the house, when this journey is over.
