“ My Dearest Larry and Candie,

I am so sorry for your loss. We are all better people for having known Chris. I can still hear her laugh and will miss her so much. She was the best sister (in-law) a person could have asked for.

My heart reaches out to you both and I hope and pray that as time passes the hurt will lessen as we remember all the good times we experienced with her as we continue along life's path.

Love you both so much.

Love Always,

“ My deepest sympathies to Larry and Candy.

I have very fond memories of times spent with my cousin Chris during our childhood. Unfortunately, time and space came between us and we were not able to spend time together during our adult years.

I know Chris was an amazing woman as well as a selfless caretaker, now it's her turn to be cared for in heaven.

Chris was taken was too soon, however, I know she is with her loved ones smiling down on her remaining family.

Please accept my sincere condolences.

“ Chris and Larry are my neighbors and my friends. Chris was an incredibly selfless person: a consummate caregiver for her family: her mother; her brother; her father; and her son ~ all preceded her in passing away. She was a partner and supporter of her husband Larry and their joint businesses; all the while caring for her beloved daughter Candy who was battling her own devastating illness. . Whenever Chris and I spoke, the first words out of her mouth were always: "How are YOU?" Her personal aches and pains were not something she 'whined' about. Even during her final days at home, when I would visit, she would immediately ask me if I were sitting in a comfortable chair that 'didn't hurt my back.'
I will miss Chris very much: she was an awesome lady whose friendship I did not get to share nearly long enough. May you joyfully embrace your loved ones in Heaven as you gently watch over your beloved daughter and husband here.
Much love, Candy Perry

“ My deepest sympathies for your tragic loss. The thing I will remember most about Chris is her hearty laugh. No matter what challenges she faced, she always tried to find the humour in any situation. She will be deeply missed. I will unfortunately not be able to attend her service in person, but you will be in my thoughts and prayers. Please accept my sincere condolences.
