

Christopher (Chris) Sheridan

November 15, 1942 - December 30, 2020

Christopher (Chris) Sheridan of Surfside Beach SC, formerly of Cresskill NJ, passed away on December 30, 2020. He leaves behind his beloved wife of 55 years, Diane, his children, Terry (and Steve) Powell of Montvale NJ, Laurel (and James) Brennan of Virginia Beach Va, Stacy (and Sean) Oppelt of Murrells Inlet SC, AnneMarie Sheridan of Myrtle Beach SC, and Chris (and Shawna) Sheridan of Dumont NJ. He is the much-loved Pop-Pop to Jack, Ryan, Maddie, Sam, Dylan, Emmett, Sarah, Shaydan, Olivia, Abigail, and Nathaniel. He is survived by his sisters Nancy Blood of Tom's River NJ, Mary Imhof-Wiget of Switzerland, and Judy Finore of Surfside Beach SC, and many nieces and nephews. He is pre-deceased by his sister Peggy, and brothers, Robert, Tommy, and Larry.

Jesus was born so He would know the joy and pain of being human, lived to teach us how to love one another and died so he could welcome this beautiful man into His kingdom. Chris Sheridan was the best husband, dad, brother, father-in-law, pop-pop, uncle, friend and role model ever. He is loved beyond measure and missed beyond words, but he is at peace in the arms of his loving father. May we all live our lives in such a way that when we face our hardest times, even strangers feel our love and are moved to love us in return. May he rest in eternal peace knowing the legacy he leaves behind. He made us Sheridan strong and is with us always.

A funeral mass will be held at St. Michael's Roman Catholic Church, Murrells Inlet SC, at 10:00 am on Saturday, January 9th, 2021. Friends are invited to gather with the family after the funeral at Holiday Inn Oceanfront @ Surfside Beach (1601 N Ocean Blvd, Surfside Beach, SC 29575). In lieu of flowers, please consider donations to St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

“ RIP Chris. You were one of the first people we met at Surfside Beach Club. I remember going to our first meet and greet at the clubhouse and feeling a little awkward as we were new to the area. You came over to us and took the time to let us know of all the goings on here and made us feel so welcome. You will be missed by so many. May God bless your beautiful family.

“ When Bill and I were first engaged, Chris and Diane came over to the apartment.
They congratulated us and gave us a beautiful white bible.
When our kids were teenagers, Bill was at the Monument in Cresskill late one morning and he ran into Chris. Chris asked how our kids were doing and Bill told them they were still sleeping. Chris said "that's what teenagers do!" A very wise man.....

Our deepest sympathy -

“ My Dad loved a good vacation...always ready to explore and see new places. From Alaska to Ireland, Sandy Diego to Orlando, the mountains of NC to the lakes of SC, what he enjoyed most was being there with his family. I'm sorry that we can't join you on this trip Dad but I take comfort in thinking that you have a room with the most beautiful view, an incredible library, unlimited golfing and napping, a 24 hour Western Movie channel and a buffet that has all you can eat chicken parmesan and chocolate ice cream.

Thanks for the amazing memories. You will be sorely missed.

“ At the family gathering in this photo a few years ago, I sat next to Dad as he presided over his legacy. He leaned over to me as he looked down the table and said, "Would ya' look at your mother...she's just timeless...as beautiful as the day I met her." The way he loved our mom was a gift to us all.

“ Our Dad loved running errands, any errand. Need something from the supermarket? Got it! What, just got home and there was something we missed, no worries he was right back on it. Post office, dump, duck pond to check the water levels, pharmacy to talk to the pharmacists about “stuff”, Martin’s potato bread, whatever it was he was ready for a mission. Undoubtedly there was an apple croissant or candy fruit slices or chocolate treat in it for him! What a man to have for a Dad, we are blessed!

“ When John and I first married we lived in Peggy's basement. Chris dropped by to borrow something for a party the family was having. I had just passed out when Chris came over and immediately told me that I was pregeant. And of course he was right!
