“ John & Barbara, I am so very glad I had the opportunity to meet Christopher. It was truly a pleasure to meet the kind, loving mischief man I had heard about in the stories from you two and my sister. It was fun to see the way the three of you would lovingly banter back and forth. It breaks my heart to have you become a member of this horrible club. The only solace is being able to tell you I honestly know the pain you are feeling. I've been there and at times I am still there. Barb & John, I love you guys! You can Email me, call me at home, work or the cell. I am here for you! BIG HUGS, Barb###imported-begin###Barbara Stacy###imported-end##

“ *my dearest and heartfelt condolences Momma and Mr belfatto. As many might not know how close me and Chris where when we were younger . How we played army together in our back yards and football together since Pee-Wee league. same classes in elementary through high school even in religious studies we where like Abbot and Costello. it pains me to think of this world with out Chris, some might remember him as a trouble maker,or bully, but i knew Chris the choir boy, i knew Chris the son ,the brother, the friend, my friend,and it kills me to know I will not get to see him again till my day comes. i am so sorry for your loss and if i could i would gladly trade places with him to ease your pain. you guys have always been like a second family to me . So that would explain why i feel like i lost a brother. RIP Chris you will always be loved and forever missed. Frank P. “ I've been sitting here typing and erasing, typing and erasing- thinking of the right things to say. I don't think anyone could say anything to ever take the pain away when someone loses someone they truly care about-especially when the loss is of a child. I am so, so sorry to hear of chris' passing. I first met chris in High School- there wasn't a day that went by that he didn't make me laugh-so many great memories! I'll always remember his corky smile and that twinkle in his eye when he was up to no good!-lol. I'll never forget the countless hrs. Spent watching him draw after school in the art classroom, hanging out at Rye Ridge, the football parties, the corpus christi dances, prom- too many funny memories that will forever be cherished. My deepest condolences to you and your family. He will be missed by many-I am so sad that I won't be able to pay my respects in SC, so I am requesting a mass for all those who will not be able to make it. CHRIS YOU TRULY WERE A SPECIAL PERSON. I WILL MISS YOU DEARLY AND AM THANKFUL TO HAVE KNOWN YOU, RIP!###imported-begin##TINA GUGLIELMO-FIORE###imported-end##
