Words cannot express our deepest sorrow over the loss you have suffered. God is with you, your family, and friends.

We met Chris through our daughter Catherine when he and some of his friends helped us move her a couple of years ago. We all had dinner together after and we knew he was a fine young man.

Our PRAYERS will continue for you both. We know Chris is with Jesus and that is what helps to get all of us through this tragedy.

With our love,

We are absolutely heartbroken over the loss of Chris! We are praying for strength in the days ahead. I had the privilege to teach Chris about 12 years ago in middle school! He was a joy, always a smile on his face! But, one memory I have is of him and Matthew playing in the field at Julie and Mark's house when they were very little. They were having so much fun rolling around in the leaves! I know he is having fun right now in Heaven!*

“ Christopher Waddell, wow... where can I really start... he was more than a friend he was more like a brother. I meet "Caddi" when we entered 6th grade at loris middle. he was an excellent classmate. He would give the shirt off his back just to see them smile. This is a very very shocking situation. we should never question God's word. But sometimes we find ourselves asking "why?"... I'll bet anything Chris is smiling down on us and saying it will be ok. Im still praying for Miles. God got you bro. and Mr.&Mrs. Waddell may God bless you family. keep the FAITH!!!
