

Claire Anne Sacchitiello

March 1, 1934 - June 28, 2022

Claire Anne Sacchitiello, 88, of Myrtle Beach, passed away at her home on June 28, 2022 with her beloved daughters by her side.

Claire was born March 1, 1934 in the Bronx, New York, a daughter of the late Ferdinand and Olympia Cutrofello. In addition to her parents, Claire was preceded in death by her dear husband of 54 years, Bernard Sacchitiello, her son Dominick Sacchitiello, her brother Sonny Cutrofello, her sister Grace Turchioe, and her granddaughter Danielle D'Agostino.

As a young woman, Claire attended and graduated from James Monroe High School in the Bronx. Shortly after high school, her parents set her up on a date with a nice young man named Bernard, who's parents also had a hand in arranging the date. They did not like each other but fell in love. They continued to date and were married a year later in 1954. During their many years together, Claire and Bernard lived in the Bronx, the Hudson Valley and in Montauk. Sadly, Bernard passed away in 2008. In 2018, Claire relocated to Myrtle Beach to be with her daughters.

In life, Claire was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She took great pride in caring for her home and raising her family. Claire's family meant everything to her. She was very kind and loving and, in her eyes, her grandchildren could do no wrong. In her leisure time, Claire loved to write poetry. In fact, some of her work was even published. She kept a large binder filled with poems that she wrote. Claire was a very creative and artistic person who also liked to draw.

Claire leaves behind a large and loving family, who will forever cherish her memory. Survivors include her devoted daughters Mary Sacchitiello and Lee D'Agostino; her son-in-law Carmine D'Agostino; her daughter-in-law Louann Sacchitiello; her adoring grandchildren Stephanie, Joseph, Daniel, Christina, and D.J.; and her sweet great-grandchildren Anthony, Carmine, Braiden, Christian, Aiden, Madison, Chase and Celestino.

No services are planned at this time. A memorial service to honor Claire will be held at a later date, to be announced by her daughters.

Goldfinch Funeral Home of Carolina Forest is honored to serve the Sacchitiello family.

“ Memories of Muliner Ave and all the fun in the pool in the back yard. Late nites with all the neighbors gathering and Ralph screaming “every body in the pool” if you didn’t go in on your own you were carried in. Such great times.

“ I have so many beautiful & funny memories of my dear Aunt Claire. I adored her as a young child. She was more like my own mother than anyone else. I loved going for sleep overs with my cousin Mary. There was always something to do & lots of fun. I chose to ask Claire to be my Confirmation Sponsor. She said, “Yes,” but I saw a little bit of a worried look on her face. She was worried that she would have to go to confession because she would be receiving communion. God forbid, confession?!! I think she & my mom spoke & my mom, by the authority of being the President of the St Ann’s Woman’s Club, told Aunt Claire she was a loving & good person & she didn’t need to confess. I was so proud to have my Aunt Claire with me. She & Uncle Bernie gave me a beautiful ring that had my birthstone & some diamond chips & I loved it. I always felt loved by Aunt Claire. As an adult, I enjoyed my dear Aunt even more. Now we could make fun of anything or anybody using adult language. Aunt Claire & I have a wide variety of adult language we enjoyed using together. On my wedding day, as people were leaving church & congratulating us, here comes Aunt Claire. Right away she noticed that I was wearing my engagement ring in front of my wedding ring. She stopped & said, “Marie, you have to change that. Put your engagement ring on first. That way your diamond band sits in front & all your diamonds show.” I did it immediately. If anyone knew best about jewelry, it was my Aunt Claire. I have missed Aunt Claire since she moved to Myrtle Beach. I was not even able to go to visit her once because of the most ridiculous health issues I have. I will always regret that & I will never forget my Aunt Claire, NEVER.

What can I say about the love I had for my beautiful Aunt. She, like my mother, her sister was always there for me and my cousins. She was beyond kind and loving ❤️. She was so easy to talk to.

My beautiful Aunt was just 16 when I was born.

I will miss her dearly.

Love your niece, Camille xoxo
