“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. I loved her very much too. Please accept my sincere apologies for not being there with you during this time. I sincerely trust that each of you will understand. Please know that although I am not there with you physically, my heart and thoughts are with each and every one of you. Although it is so very hard to let someone that you love so much go, you know, as I do, that she is in a much better place. She was a very strong and special lady. I can just see her now--- walking---singing and whistling, as she used to loved to do down those streets of gold.... I pray that God will comfort the sadness that you feel and that your heart is comforted knowing that she is suffering no more. She fought a good fight, and now, she has gone home where she will never suffer again. My love and prayers are with each of you.....wanda##imported-begin##Wanda Hyman Lewis##imported-end##
