I am so honored and proud to have called her MOM. She was a feisty woman but loved us all. God truly blessed us when he chose her to be our mom.

One word to describe Emma perfectly is caregiver. She was a selfless caregiver to so many people. She is my beloved aunt and I will miss her so much. I've already been reaching for the phone to call her.

“ Emma's loyalty and devotion to others was evident to all around her. Her pride in her children and the entire family was always front and center and well earned. We have too many stories to put here, but we want the family to know how much we treasure our history with her. An amazing friend. Liz and Dave Via

Emma was living with my mom at the time she helped out with Mr and Mrs Via.....she would come home and talk about you all as if you were her family. I know she thought a lot of all you.
