

Clarence Cannon

February 5, 1931 - October 31, 2018

Loris... Clarence Cannon, age 87, passed away Wednesday, October 31, 2018.

Mr. Cannon was born in Aynor, a son of the late Jesse Jacob and Nettie Daniels Cannon. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, and uncle. Mr. Cannon was the former owner and operator of Piggly Wiggly in Myrtle Beach and owner and operator of C and S Cattle Farm. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his wife, Wilhemina P. Cannon; his sister, Retha Dickens; his brothers, Rev. Albert J. Cannon and Billy Roy Cannon; and an infant brother, Robert Cannon.

He is survived by his three daughters, Melissa Cannon Bethea and her husband, Randy of Florence, Ramona Gail Cannon Hayes and her husband, Jeff of Lake View, and Angelia Cannon Sellers of Murrells Inlet and her fiancé, Alan Ward of Myrtle Beach; four loving grandchildren, Ransom Cole Bethea and Brantley Ryan Bethea of Florence, Hunter Reed Sellers of Alexandria, VA, and Jane-Madison Sellers of Murrells Inlet; one great-grandchild, Cannon Brooks Bethea of Florence; one sister, Leila C. Suggs of Andrews; one brother, Lester Cannon and his wife, Rachel of Myrtle Beach; his special canine companion, Gypsy; and many loving nieces and nephews.

Services will be private.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Mr. Cannon's memory to the American Lung Association Donation Processing Center, P. O. Box 7000, Albert Lea, MN 56007-8001.

I love and miss you papa cannon. I wish you were here to help my with this endeavor I'm embarking on.... I love and miss you and nana so much. Her pecan pies were amazing, coulda put gordon ramsey to shame. I love you both so so so much. Please watch over the rest of the family as we know you're always here in spirit. I'll see you both again someday <3 Rest easy, and I love you both forever
