“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." ”

“ I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Clarence Cox. During my childhood, his family were more like relatives than just friends. We went to the same church, worked in tobacco together, visited and ate together, remodeled Springfield Baptist Church, and built a fellowship building there. Mr. Clarence was one of the most soft spoken and kind people I have known in my life. My heart and love goes out to Gail, Grant, Sharon, and Carole. I know you will miss him as I have missed my dad for two years. Thankfully, you have many wonderful memories of your dad. Those memories and the love of God will comfort you until you can go meet him in Heaven. God's Love and comfort to each of you from Travis and Lynda Martin.

“ Gail, Grant, Sharon, and Carole..... You know my heart is heavy with yours today. I see those PRINCE genes in your Dad. He was a fine man A Dad that I know you were mighty proud of to call yours. It is hard to believe but Dad died at 85 in 2005, as well. I love you all and you will continually be in my prayers.
