“ Brother C.J. was a great man. we had some wonderful times with him at South Conway church. He and Mary both were precious. I thank God for him serving our country . He loved his garden and most of all loved to share with his friends. Shirley you and your family cherish the wonderful years you made. We loved him and he was a blessing to us. His race is won, we can see him again on that Glad Reunion Day, if we are serving the God he served. We love y'all and are sending up prayers during this difficult time.
Love and prayers,
Rev PAUL and Terry Lambert.
