“ Dear Carol and Tim, Our hearts are heavy and sad since hearing about Matt's passing. We have many memories of the southern boy from South Carolina What fun times we had and so many laughs out in the fields on Snowmachines. If Matt was there, we knew we were going to have a fun time. He was telling us a few years ago about his beautiful flower garden. Instead of weeding them, he is now smelling them and enjoying the beauty of heaven... We love you both.... “ Dear Carol and Tim, Daniel and I are so sorry to hear of Matt's death. What a loss! I just have to hear his name and instantly I am transported back to the days of snowmobile safaris. Our families had so much fun together! The laughing until tears ran down our faces - I can still hear Matt's laugh so clear. I can also hear him singing "When the moon hits your eye like a big pizza pie, that's amore." Although it has been years since you lived here I will never forget the friendship our families shared. We are praying that God will comfort you as only He can. Love, Ruth and Daniel###imported-begin##Ruth Hamel###imported-end##

“ Dear Carol and Tim, I was so shocked to hear in church yesterday of Matt's death. I never ever saw Matt in a bad mood all the time you lived near us in Harwood Subdivision or at church. I remember my kids always referred to him as the cookie man. It was so good to see you a few years ago when you were back - it seemed like he never changed. The two of you will be in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time but we are so thankful we know where Matt is now. Sincerely, Arlen and Lovada Bell###imported-begin##Lovada Bell###imported-end##

“ Dear Carol, We were so shocked to hear about Matt. He was a special man who will be remembered as one of Marcus's best Keebler buddies. He really enjoyed working with him and then seeing both of you at the retirement gatherings. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this time. May God bless you with His comfort. Love, Marcus and Gwen Sinclair##imported-begin##Gwen Sinclair##imported-end##

“ It is with sadness as I write this note. Both you and I have been so fortunate to have had wonderful parents and it's so hard to say goodbye. You've been through a whirlwind in the last month or so and probably feel numb. When this happened to me I felt paralyzed - yet - I kept going which is exactly what your Dad would insist. Although our lives are always different after the loss of a parent, in the coming days, it will get easier to smile and even laugh at some of their antics. While we're somehow different after the loss, we find the strength to continue and strive to be as perfect as our parents thought we were. Even though I only met your Dad on several occasions, I'm absolutely certain he wants you to continue to live your life to the fullest. To do so is to continue to honor him. You're a wonderful friend and we love you. bill and bruce.##imported-begin##Dickie##imported-end##
