

Clement Luverne Grant

December 11, 2009

Pawleys Island-- Clement L. Grant Clement Luverne Grant of Pawleys Island and previously of Surfside Beach, died Friday December 11, 2009 at The Lakes of Litchfield. Born in Montevideo, Minnesota on June 30, 1923 he was the only child to the late Arthur and Amanda (Halvorson) Grant. He served in the Civilian Conservation Corps as a teenager. During World War II he served in the U.S. Army Air Corps, stationed on the air base in the Azores. His life long occupation was working as a heavy equipment operator in road construction. Surviving is his son Donald Grant and wife Mary Beth Gentleman of Lexington, Massachusetts and granddaughter Amanda Grant who resides at Utah State University. His wife Dorothy Lyle Grant preceded him in death in January 2009. Services will be private. Memorials may be made to any national or local chapter of an Alzheimers support fund. An online guest book is available at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com. Goldfinch Funeral Home Beach Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ We enjoyed having you and dot as friends.We had some good times.##imported-begin##Mary Baldoumas##imported-end##

December 14, 2009 at 03:08 PM

“ So long old buddy. Sorry to see you go.##imported-begin##Harry Baldoumas##imported-end##

December 14, 2009 at 03:00 PM

“ We miss you Clem!##imported-begin##Helen Paul##imported-end##

December 14, 2009 at 02:55 PM

“ I wish to extend my most sincere condolences regarding your father Clem. Clem was a pleasure to know and be with when I was at the beach and in the Senior Games. Wishing you the very best in the future. Chuck Hebb##imported-begin##Chuck Hebb##imported-end##

December 13, 2009 at 10:19 PM