“ Shamara I am so sorry for your loss. Sorry that you are having to go through this at such a young age. I'm not going to tell you that it will get easier over time, but through the help of the Good Lord in Heaven and prayers from family and friends it will help you make it one day at a time. It's been two years for me and I still cry every day. Just always remember the good memories y'all shared. I will keep you in my prayers and if you ever need to talk just call, Shamara has my number. My deepest sympathy to all of the family. Love you, Tena Cook

“ Mr. Vassie, Mrs Carol, Ms Shamaria and Mattie. We extend our most sincere condolences to you all in this time of sorrow. There are no words right now to begin to help at this time in your grieving. Another young life taken, way to soon. Clint was a very talented young man, with a lot of life that he should have been able to live out. There was apparently a greater plan for him and your family. We had the privilege of being able to meet him and your family many, many years ago. He was a good friend to our son, and I have some of his work saved with in his belongings. We cant help the pain your felling right now go away, but rest assured that he made an impact on a lot of people. You are all in our thoughts and prayers for the comfort, guidance and help that only the the "Almighty" can help with during this dark hour. It will never "get better", as they say, just a little easier to deal with as time goes on. We are here if needed. Gods strength to you all.

“*Bro-In-Law....I will always remember when I was away in Charlotte and I was on the phone with Mara and you wanted to talk to me...I remember your words of encouragement when I needed it the most, it made me cry, you will never know how much your belief in me meant to me...I will never forget your last minute, spur of the moment "come out to eat with us" times...with tears in my eyes right now, I honestly wish we had MORE of those times together, and I know we would have if you could have, I know you would have done alot more if you would have felt like it, I'm sorry you had such a short life, I know if we could have taken that sickness away from you, we would have...I will miss your many stories you would share with me, I will miss YOU!! I'm thankful for the time you had on this earth to love Maddie and show her how much her Daddy loved her, I am so happy she got to go to Disney with you, you must have known bro;(, you took her and I know you didn't feel good, but you took her anyway...regardless of how YOU felt, you made sure you left Maddie with that wonderful memory that she can tell all her friends about, I can hear her now..."My Daddy took me to Disney, and I flew on a plane and loved it." lol, that's exactly how she will say it too....our Lil Sassy pants....I promise to look after her bro-in-law....Aunt KK has got this!! We had our ups and downs but that's what family does, and YOU were and will always be considered family to me...now go fly high with the other angels in that brand new and healthy body of yours!! Play a game of baseball with my Daddy and give Tal one of those amazing paint jobs you do on his bike up there, and give them both BIG hugs for me 🤗🤗🤗.
...until we meet again my brother, I'll be missing you and watching over the girls and checking up on your Mama and Daddy often. ♡♡♡*

“ Our darling, precious Clint. You were not our nephew, but we always called u that because that is how we felt about u in our hearts . We remember your wonderful smile & kind heart, always wanting to help , or give of your time, even when u were so very ill. Rest in peace our Angel & know that we will meet again, if it is God's will for us to do so.

To Carol, Vassie & the rest of your wonderful family we want to say that we love u so very much & u r still, and always will be, in our hearts & prayers. if we ca do anything for your family, at any time PLEASE give us a call. God sent his Angel to be with u for such a small time but he had a beautiful daughter, Mattie that u can look at & love and see your son smiling back at u when she begins to smile again, as well as all the family. Our hearts r saddened by this tragedy, even through we know God knows best, and he so very often takes his Angels home at a very young age.. knowing that in our hearts helps to ease the pain for us , just a little. May God bless all of u during your healing time.

We Love all of u so very much.
