“ To the Deese Family:

In this difficult time in your life, may you find comfort in God's Word, the Bible. James 4:8 encourages; "Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you."

My condolences.

“ Patty, John, Jessica, and Cory we were really sadden to hear about Uncle Clyde's passing - I pray for strength for you and your family in the coming days. Jackie will be attending the memorial service today, but I will be at home with our grand-kids (Jack will fill you in later). I wasn't around you while you were growing up, but I have heard some pretty amazing stories about your childhood. I learned you were the most precious gift your Mom & Dad ever received and that they loved you very very much. Our thoughts and prayer are with you and your family. God bless you and keep you and yours.

“ Mr. Clyde Deese was the youngest of six boys born to the Late Ruth Summerford Deese and Dock Deese. His brothers were, James Thurlo Deese, Johnny Deese, Kapie Deese, Otis Lee Deese and Curtis Deese and his most precious and loving wife Iona Deese. This family was a loving family. I knew two of his uncles a Mr. Paul Summerford and Mr. Henry Summerford. With Clyde in the Air Force and being deployed to different locations throughout his career the family didn't get to see him and his family as often as they would have liked. His daughter, Patty, was the apple of his eye and when the family was enlarged when she and John married it just made him all the more proud especially when she gave him two wonderful grandchildren, Jessica and Cory. Patty please know that you were and are loved and two of your cousins due to health reasons won't be able to attend the Memorial Service ask that I give you their sympathy and they would be remembering you and your family in their prayers (Wayne Deese and William Deese). Love and Prayers, Ruby D. Deese

“ *Patty, John, Jessica, and Cory, I am so sorry about Clyde's passing. I don't have any doubt that he is rejoicing with your mom in Heaven. Patty, you completed your parents life and they loved you as much as you loved them. You can have comfort in knowing that you will see them again. We will miss Clyde. May you allow God's spirit and love surround you in your time of grief through the days, weeks, months and years to come. Keep his love and memories alive in your heart . Love and Prayers, Carolyn D.
