“ To Cousin Kim and Kori...I remember all the summers spent at Granny Owen's house and most evenings on his way home he would check on her and then come by later with Aunt Cora Lee and Kim & Kori. He usually brought ice cream or some other treat for my brothers and me and would visit before going back to their house. He would let us stay at the apartments that he had at Surfside Beach or the condo that he had. I got the chance to come and visit him last May and I'm glad I did. When I entered his room I saw that smile of his and said "Hello sir. Do you remember me?" he smiled and said I think I do and with a little help from Kim remembered me. I know he's up in Heaven with Aunt Cora Lee and my Mom (his sister Shirley) and the rest of his brothers and sisters and granny and grandpa enjoying the good life and rest that he's earned. Love you lots Kim and Kori and family.

“ I just returned from attending the funeral of my dear friend and neighbor, Clyde Jackson. He was my buddy and I would see him most every day as I walked our dogs or found other reasons to stop and chat. He had many endearing qualities but I think his humility and loving kindness were the most obvious. He walked with Jesus and his actions and attitude displayed that at all times. He has a very loving family who were extremely attentive until God called him home. I will truly miss him but I am assured I will see him again.

“ Uncle Clyde was my mother Judy’s most favorite sibling. He was like a father to her and my mother never forgot the kindnesses that he would bestow to her and her older sisters. When she needed money for school clothes or shoes or for school supplies, he never failed to be there to give what he could to help. My mother spoke lovingly of these memories and kept in touch with her brother over the many years even though living in California made it difficult to see each other very often. I personally saw how kind he was myself, always enjoying times with my cousins Kim and Kori whenever we did come out to visit. As a teacher, I was involved in a program called Renaissance that began here in Conway back in 1986. Mr. Biddle and I met at a convention and I told him of my connection to Conway. When I mentioned that Clyde Jackson was my uncle, he was blown away! He couldn’t say enough about how wonderful Uncle Clyde was - truly a celebrity of the Jerry Cox Company! Uncle Clyde was a kind and thoughtful man and I send my heartfelt condolences to his daughters and all those whose lives he touched. May he rest in peace and be welcomed home to be with his wife, his parents and his siblings.
