“ Some of my fondest childhood memories are from visiting you in Lutherville, MD. Swimming in the pool, watching MTV and playing down in the basement, drinking root beers and other sodas (that were stored on the basement steps to which we had an endless supply), and you always surprising us with ice cream sandwiches once we'd finished all of our dinner. You will be truly missed and I know you are in a better place. Until we meet again Grandmommy. I love you. - Anthony Gerald

“ It's so hard to say goodbye. I can't count the trillions of tears we cried over the past several decades each time we parted ever since I joined the navy in '77. But we always knew that very soon after we would see each other again. I'd like to think that is still the case, and I will see you, my mother someday (but not too soon).

I love you,

Christopher
