“Connie was not only a caring, classy lady, she showed her delight and humor at our Red Hat group gatherings, and was so much fun! She was so proud of all of her children and grandchildren and could barely wait for the arrival of the new babies in the family. When she stopped quilting she shared some of her fabric which became part of the quilts I made for my new grandchildren. I will always remember her generosity and think fondly of her wonderful spirit. She will be missed by all of us. "And that." (I loved the way she said it.)

*Have faith that the ones we love are not lost to us forever
but wait to live with us in peace for all eternity.*

“ Aunt Connie was such a special person, she always cared about everyone in our Large family. I never met Grandma Budzisz she died when I was six month old but I always imagined Aunt Connie was just like Grandma B. She was loved by all who had been graced by meeting her, I have no doubt she is hanging out with my dad, reunited with Uncle Joe, Grandma and Grandpa and all her other Brothers in the presence of Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior.

“ *I have so very many special memories growing up with Sims children. Connie (the daughter) has been my great friend since 1st grade. I recall, with great fondness, my sleepover nights @ the Sims' home...Ms Connie was always so loving & gracious to all of the friends of her children & treated us all like one of her own - even though she certainly had enough of her own w/o any of us around!
Lol*

She was a special lady & lived her life w/grace, dignity & much love for all of her family & friends. She was so proud of all of her children - What a wonderful legacy she leaves behind. Peace & blessings to you all...

“ May each of you know that my heartfelt thoughts and prayers go out to you as you have lost your sweet mother. I was fortunate enough to have been a teacher at CHS when she was the secretary in the guidance office. She was a great co-worker and kept the department organized. Mrs Sims will be missed by many and this service should be a celebration of her life and all that she gave to others.
