“ Polly touched the heart of anyone she encountered. To know her was to love her. She loved genuinely and would do anything for anyone. She meant so much to me and my family. It will be hard to look across the street and not see Polly waving to us. My wife and I loved her dearly and I'm so thankful they became so close. We will always cherish the time we had with Polly and remember the excitement she had knowing we were here again. Oh what we would do to hear her say "I'm doing very well" just one more time.
