“ When I started working in SC it was so alien to me. I was definitely a fish out of water and no one wanted to help me back into the water either! Corey recognized my frustration and alienation. See Corey was a man who was always there for everyone. He was kind and considerate and had a great sense of feelings and emotions of those around him. He found commonalities with all around him, making people feel welcomed. This is an incredible quality. To me Corey was a trusted ally, someone who brought light and hope. The world lost a wonderful human. God got a great one. Godspeed my friend. Until we meet again.

“ Corey had a kind soul, an old soul. He cared about everyone and wanted to be helpful. I think he changed lives because he wanted to "save" anyone who had lost their way. He will be remembered always. His smile and hugs were the best. He truly loved his family and friends. His Pap and I were always amazed by his kindness and affection. He will be missed. Until we meet again, he will live in our hearts. We love you, Corey. Forever, Pap and Gram Judy

“ I still can not believe this tragedy. Corey was one of the nicest, kindest guys. I'll never forget when we shaving creamed/toilet papered Mr. Wagner's car our sophomore year. Playing truth or dare with Keener and Shane. Pictures of you sent me eating a cheeseburger because I told you "your ass was too damn skinny". Our monthly check-ins. May you Rest In Peace.
