“ Dear Beloved Family: I am so very sorry for your loss and offer my sincere condolences. No doubt, there isn't anything that can replace your mournful tears except to have Courtney alive and strong and in our midst again. May you be encouraged to know how God, in his great love and mercy, has promised through his son, Jesus, that "all in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out" in the resurrection "on the last day". (John 5:25, 26, 28, 29; John 11:23, 24) God "yearns" to reunite families again. (Job 14:14, 15) We know this because Jesus, who perfectly reflects his father's thoughts and feelings, showed compassion and empathy for a mother who had suffered the loss of her son- in the account recorded in Luke 7:11-15. He was deeply touched by the sorrow of others (John 11:33, 35). The promise of the resurrection gives us hope. (Romans 15:4; Psalms 145:16) May these divine promises strengthen you and give you a measure of peace of mind and heart during this most difficult time and in the days ahead. Psalms 147:3 says, "God heals the brokenhearted..." You have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Tammy Johnson##imported-end##

“ Dear Candy, Chip, Chris & Annie, I was so shocked to hear of Courtneys accident. My heart goes out to all of you at this time. There are never enough words or thoughts that can help you thru this diifcult time, as I have found with the recent passing of my son Quin. Please just know that my prayers are with you all and especially so to you Candy, for I know the pain a mother suffers when her child is taken away so quickly and without any warning. May God Bless each of you in your time of sorrow and May Peace & Love return to your hearts soon. Courtney will surely be missed by an array of wonderful. loving & caring family and friends. I wish I could be there with you all. Please know I will be there in mind and spirit. With much sympathy, DI###imported-begin##Di Shockley###imported-end##
