“ It saddens me to learn of the passing of Courtney Caudill, a beautiful, kind young woman, who I knew when she was a student at Lord Botetourt High School in Daleville, Virginia. I also knew and worked with her parents, Lynn and Wayne at Lord Botetourt. Prayers and love are sent to her parents and friends at this sad time. May she rest in peace, no longer sick and suffering, in the arms of our Lord Jesus Christ and his Father, God.

Love, Lynn Ellen (Thompson) Meredith

“ I went to high school and church with Courtney. We reconnected a couple of years ago and each time we spoke she would always ask about my family and my needs even while dealing with her own struggles. In our recent conversations we shared lots of laughs over our memories of high school and church functions. She was the only friend who knew my life before my dad's passing and one of my only trusted confidants. She was always positive even while battling her health. She knew her time on this earth was coming to a close, but she remained strong in her faith and knew that God was calling her home. I am so sorry you had to fight this fight and I will forever miss our conversations. I love you girl.
