“ My name is Ric Oliva, I am the son of Tony Oliva. I met Minnie in August of 2022 at the "Welcome Home" celebration the Twins did for my dad at Target Field after he was inducted into the Hall of Fame. My dad always credited Minnie for convincing the Twins to give him a second chance, even mentioning him during his induction speech.

I had told Minnie that I had written a story about my dad, and I wanted to get him a copy when it was finished. I've been working with a publisher since February 2024 to get it released, and once I saw the initial storyboard and illustrations, I was excited that I would finally be able to send Minnie a copy soon, and how surprised he'd be that he was in it! That's when my dad told Minnie had passed away.

I am so sorry for your loss. I'd still like to send a book to his family. My dad has an old phone number but doesn't know if it works anymore. If someone from the family is reading this, or someone that knows them can contact them and let them know to get a hold of me, I'd love to get you a book. Minnie's story will forever be tied to my dad's through this story and illustration. I don't want to add an email and phone # on a public website, so please use the "contact me" form on my website www.ricoliva.com to get a hold of me. Or call my dad if you still have his phone number.

Sincerely,
Ric Oliva

“Minnie was one of the nicest and good natured people I have ever met. He was close to my Mom Lib and they stayed in touch well past their time together at Crockett Park. Some of my fondest memories growing up at the park was Minnie taking the time to throw me batting practice! God bless the Mendoza family during their loss.

Respectfully,
Mike Shildt

“ I've known Minnie for close to 40 years. A great mentor to me when I first starting coaching with Cleveland. A kind man with great wit who knew how to make you and your family feel special. That laugh was one of a kind. I always looked forward to the delicious Cuban meals he would cook for the staff on occasion. My sincerest condolences to all of the Mendoza Family for your loss.

My sincerest condolences for your loss. I was privileged to have been a teammate as well as working in 2 organizations coaching with Minnie. He was a great friend and mentor to generations of players and coaches. I was very lucky to have been on the receiving end of both. He taught me about the game, how to barbecue soar orange chicken and get caught by the game warden fishing in the wrong place!! They let us off because we were in baseball. Ha ha! He loved his family and often shared stories about them. May you rest in peace my friend, I can't wait until we meet agin
