

Curtis U. Johnson

February 11, 1943 - November 27, 2018

North Myrtle Beach...Mr. Curtis U. Johnson, 75, widower of Connie Johnson, passed away unexpectedly on November 27, 2018 at Conway Medical Center.

Born in Mullins, SC, Mr. Johnson was the son of the late Grady Johnson and the late Lillian Craven Johnson. He worked as an electrical contractor but was also very talented in hand-painted pin striping on cars and motorcycles. He was a gifted musician whose specialty was boogie-woogie piano. In addition to his wife, Mr. Johnson was predeceased by a son, Britt Johnson.

Survivors include his son, Curtis A. Johnson and wife Christina; his daughter, Susan Jeffords; his sister, Elizabeth Mansy and husband Danny; his sister-in-law, Violet Benton; his nieces, Brandi Spencer and husband Josh and Lauren Mansy; his nephew, Jacob Mansy and wife Jenna; and his great-nephews, Sawyer Mansy and Brodie Spencer.

No local services are planned.

“ My fondest memory of Curt was when we were building our house in the 70s. Asleep on a Saturday morning, I heard boogie-woogie sounds coming from my downstairs piano. My son was up early watching cartoons and Curt had come over to finish up some work and was unable to pass up the opportunity.
