“ As a child I loved to see Aunt Cyndee as she liked to spell it pull up to our home. She never came to visit without a HUGE bag of hand-me-downs from Laura and Maureen...and on special occasions she either knit or stitched one-of-kind dresses for our dolls as well. In High School I was lucky enough to have her for my Anatomy and Physiology teacher...and remember her pulling me aside to mention to me that once in her classroom calling her "Aunt" probably wasn't wise. She was a fantastic teacher and encouraged and praised her students as if they were her own children. She sent my college roommate and I our first "care packages" in college...and she remembered everything...calling cards, post it notes, and an address book with her phone number with a note attached to call her anytime..and we both knew she meant it. For these reasons and many more I will miss her.##imported-begin##Kristin Wambach##imported-end##

“ Dear Jim, Lisa, Lora, Grandchildren & Aunt Lydia, It is with sorrow in my heart that I write to you. Cyn-dee was such a wonderful, Wife, Mother, Grandmother and Daughter. She was the best of friends to Carol and the most caring Aunt to Kristin and Kara. I can't forget the hand-me-downs! She would light up a room! Stories of Cyn-dee will continue to be a part of our lives. Jim when we talked at Uncle Rick's funeral you told me that she was ready to meet God and be with Gramma Ricci and her Dad. May God Grant You Peace, Health, Happiness and Long Life and May He Grant Cyn-dee Eternal Life. With Love, Paul###imported-begin##Paul Wambach###imported-end##

“ Jim, We're very sorry to read the announcement on Cindy. We truly enjoyed being a part of taking care of her. She was very proud of her family, especially those grandchildren. I'll always remember Cindy, because of her, we adventured off to Corning, N.Y.. While visiting the Corning Museum I bought a wind chime, and everytime I look at it I see Cindy. It hangs in my kitchen window. Thank you for sharing Cindy with us. Each patient brings a little something extra into our lives. Through Cindy and others like her our lives are enhanced with more joy and laughter. Sure sorrow comes soon after, but it never takes away the laughter or the memories that we shared. Thank you, Pam Tyler and the girls at Wacc.

“ Jim and family, Cny-dee was my mentor for many years. Her knowledge in the medical field has spurred me on. She was my first boss after graduation from Thompson Institute and no others have compared to her. She was the most beautiful person and fantastic friend. She was compassionate and caring and a joy to work with. We became good friends and I will miss her greatly. "Peace and Love"##imported-begin##Trudy Fusselman##imported-end##
