“ When I got word of what happened my heart sank u will be forever missed, from day one we was close through the years that never changed no matter how time passed we would always pick up like it was just yesterday and no matter the distance between us we always kept in touch, I remember all the bike rides the trouble we'd get in but I don't remember a bad memory of you. My condolences to your loved ones and my thoughts and prayers for them as they get through this hard time 🙏🏻 I hate I couldn't make it to pay my respects to u, if I could have I would have definitely been there, u r forever loved and missed 💔

“ I have known you since 1983 when I met your father Harold William Mann for the first time in my life as my half brother and you and Bernice and Stephen as my nephews and niece and ever since then have been a part of my life ..through ups and downs in and outs we never not kept in touch and missed communication even living out of state and living different lives ..trips to Myrtle Beach and your trips to Carolina Beach and even Rockingham county was always a delight and joy and blessing..you always told me you made a promise to your dad you would watch over me in some way and always have in someway and now I know it will be from above because you always kept your promises.. You touched so many peoples hearts and loved ones even when you didn't need or have to... You will so dearly be greatly missed and Always loved by me and serval..I thank God for October 15th 1983..R.I.P my nephew..don't forget to catch all them fish just don't put no one in a head lock and tell your mom and dad and granny and all our other loved ones already there I said hello n love to all...Marvin Dale Mann you will always be in our hearts ....
