“ It is with deep sadness that my husband and I send our sincere condolences to Dan's husband and his family. Somehow I have let too much time slip by without being in contact with Dan & just learned of his passing. He had such a special place in our hearts and we will always remember him as such a kind, generous, loving man. I met Dan when he owned the Gallery in Hartford, CT and we had an instant bond. He did a lot of work for the company I worked at, which was a family business. As I recall, the first day we met he was supposed to meet with the owner of the business (my father) and somehow got pawned off on me. As the story goes, Dan initially thought ...oh great, I have to deal with the daughter of the owner. However, the moment we met the connection was instant and he became one of my best friends. I adored him. My heart is broken right now but I know he is in a better place. Heaven truly got another angel....a very, very special one! We love you, Dan. May you RIP my friend.

“ When we were very little our Gram took us to a magic show. Dan was picked to come up and volunteer onstage. He was given a banana to hold. When the magician turned away Dan peeled the banana and began to eat it. When the magician turned back to begin his magic trick he did a double take on seeing that the banana was gone and the audience howled with laughter. Dan sat there grinning. No matter the years, or the ups and downs of our family's life, I remember him as that boy, our eldest cousin having so much fun on the stage as we all laughed along with him. So long Danny. Love you cuz!
