“ We extend our deepest sympathy to Mary and the O'Connor family. Dan was a neighbor but most of all he was our friend. We will always remember the good times we had on the beach discussing all sorts of things. Dan had an inquisitive mind and was interested in many different topics. Dan wasn't able to go to the beach for several years, but when the weather was good, we would continue our discussions outside his home. Even though he had serious health problems, he never complained but was always interested in how others were doing. He was very proud of his sons and was as devoted to Mary as she was to him. Dan's suffering is now over and even though he is in a better place, he will be missed by those fortunate enough to be called his friend.##imported-begin##Tim and Nora Gerstmyer##imported-end##

“ I read of your loss and want to express my deepest sympathy. During these times it is especially important to draw close to God thru prayer. It is also a time to reflect on the promises that he has given us thru his word the Bible concerning the hope of seeing our loved ones again. I hope you find comfort in reading these scriptures. John 11:11-44, John 5:21, 28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Revelation 21:3, 4. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##cross_karen46@hotmail.com##imported-end##
