“ *Our Dear Uncle Dan,
Right now you're hanging out with some of my favorite people, playing acey-deucey, i'm sure. And that's what you earned and deserve, our Lord's promise of Heaven.*

*But I'd like to share some memories...
How about that day in March when you wanted to marry my Aunt Dolores. I'm so glad you didn't take it personal that I decided to faint on the altar-really, I had no bad intentions! Thank Goodness for my Dad and Mary Brady!*

Then it was all those years that you welcomed children and eventually teenagers into your quiet and tranquil home, usually 2 weeks of total chaos! But you were steady as a rock. You and Aunties took us to places and monuments that we probably would never have visited otherwise, for that, I am grateful. By the way, my favorite is Mt. Vernon.

Then there was Thanksgiving, 1980, enough said.

You were the best, Uncle Dan and our family was blessed to have you. Auntie and you got on the right airplane.

Keep it warm.

So much love and respect,

Debbie
