“ Daniel was so full of life. He made me laugh, day in and day out and I will miss him dearly. The library will not be the same without him. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family. God bless you all.

“ To the entire Skuchko family, I am so terribly sorry for your loss. Daniel came back into my life a few years ago and fast became again one of my dearest friends. He loves y'all so much; I guess God needed him more than we needed him here. Love, peace and prayers to you all.

“ Danielle., My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this tragic time. A freind sent me this message during a very similar time that I would like to share with you.

I'm Free

Dont grieve for me, for now I am free

I'm following the path God laid for me

I took his hand when I heard him call

I turned my back and left it all

I could not stay another day

to laugh, to live to work or play

Tasks left undone must stay that way , I found that place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill is with rememberd joy, A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss ah yes these things, I too will miss, Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tommorrow.. My lifes been full, I savored much.. Good friends, good times , a loved ones touch.... Perhaps my time seems all to brief dont lenghen it now with undue grief... Lift up your head and share with me.. God wanted me now... He set me free

“ Daniel, you will be missed my friend. You were great to work with, always willing to help, always looking for solutions, always ready for a challenge, always quick with a joke. I will miss our conversations on everything from religion to science fiction and news of your passing leaves my heart heavy today. I will miss you but treasure the memories.

“ What I remember about Daniel is that he was a genuinely kind and helpful person. He liked helping people, he like talking to people, he liked joking with people, he just liked people.

“ Danny was my only nephew and I loved him from the day he was born. To say I will miss him is an understatement. But I have many memories of his short life to cherish and conversations we had. I will remember him with love.

“ I will never forget Daniel at work here in Quantico, because he was always more than willing to help me, no matter how busy he was, and his great sense of humor, which made a lasting impression on me from the first time we met. I still can't believe he is gone, but I will always remember him as a really good person, and how we joked together in the mornings outside the back door of our building. No matter rain, snow, wind, heat or cold, we were always happy to greet one another and joke about the day. I will think about him every morning as I come in now, and miss him. My thoughts and prayers go out to all of his family.
