“ Dan was along time family friend and enjoyed knowing him, his sister and Mom. Remember playing football in my back yard and he got tackled, broke his ankle. Good thing Daddy was a doctor. God Bless His family and all those who were lucky enough to know him.

“ To the Turner Family:

May the memories of a life well-lived help comfort you during this difficult time. And may the peace that God provides, sustain you in the days ahead. (Philippians 4:7)

*My condolences,
SJB.*

“ To Marcy and family: How fondly I remember the many years of my association with Dan in the banking community...lastly within the Anchor Bank. I counted him a friend, and although we saw one another sparingly in our retirement years, knowing that he was spending his time in his beloved Murrells Inlet, gave me a lot of satisfaction. I'll miss him just knowing that he is no longer there, but draw comfort knowing that he is in a far better place. I urge you, those he loved, to be a peace as Dan is at peace.

Be greatly blessed,

Bill (and Betsy) Thomas
