“ Irene and family: We here at Ocean Lakes have had all of you in our prayers daily since we learned of Danny's illness. Now God has answered our prayers - - not with the YES we wanted, but with a better answer for Danny! How wonderful to know that Danny is now released from all pain and troubles of this world, and he is where he longed to be for so many years - - singing in the heavenly choir! We rejoice on his behalf, and we shall continue to uphold all of you, his family, in our prayers in the days ahead. As has been often said, "Death is not extinguishing the light. It is putting out the lamp, because the dawn has come." So many of us at Ocean Lakes join in sending you our love.

“ Not too many Sundays ago, after I had given glory to God during service, Danny came up to me and shook my hand. He said I had a powerful witness and to not stop sharing it. I loved to hear Danny pray and praise God. Heaven has a very special person now. Danny will be missed.

“ Danny was a man of God and family. He will be greatly missed by many. You could not ask for a better friend. My wife Cynthia and I have been his friends for a long time. We both worked with him for nearly 20 years or more at Ocean Lakes Family Campground. Danny was an outstanding Security Guard who loved to smile and sing to the guest. You couldn't ask for a better person to deal with the public he will never be forgotten. Hunter and fisherman he was if you wanted to know where the fish were just ask Danny. I once had a friend come from England and Danny treated him like family, my friend always ask about him each year I see him. He had gone to a better place and hopefully he will see my daughter who he loved as his own. The last time I saw Danny I ask him to find her when he leaves us. RIP Danny Love Cynthia, Shorty and family.

Words can't express what Danny meant to us. My Husband and I Loved just Loved being in his presence, sick or well. Danny and my Husband, Reggie would be in front of their house and have Church. They're not one time we talked that it wasn't about Jesus. Danny invited us to Life Church November of 2016 and we have been there ever since and we'll be there from now on. Danny is going to be missed but we'll see him again I know. ❤️

Very nice words, Shorty. I miss you, and Cynthia very much. I hope this finds you well. R.I.P. Danny. I will always have fond memories of all the times you made everyone laugh at shift change but more importantly; you always had everyone's back.

“ I met Danny Nobles while he was working the front gate at Ocean Lakes, we were greeted with a smile and a song as we entered! While working in my flower beds out front he stopped to say hi and to talk about god and sing to me a hymn or two! He became a friend! He helped Buster Ledford roof my new house! Later when Savanna and I went to his church he witnessed to Savanna and helped her thru her PTSD attacks! Danny prayed with me a lot over my different health issues! Knowing him was simply a honor and a pleasure! Go rest high on that mountain and I know I will see you singing in heaven! RIP friend!

“ Danny you were very special to Jamie and I when we were neighbors. The love you showed us was so special. I remember singing with you on the swing. We sang I Come To the Garden one day and so beautiful. I remember I didn't feel good one day and asked you to put your hands on me and pray. You did and I could feel the Lord Jesus Christ come through me. God bless Irene and your family at this time.
