“ Danny was a very nice man, met him when the veterans got together at Egg Up. Back when I first met Danny he smiled and laughed a lot, but in later years he didn't have much to say, because he didn't feel good, we all could tell. Barbara brought him every time he felt like it or didn't have any appointment to keep him away, Barbara was a very caring, loving wife. She will miss Danny, as well as all his friends, but God saw he couldn't keep up his strength and carried him home, no more pain, no suffering and a new body to walk the streets of gold! What a promise, what a Savior!!
