“ Darin held a strong presence when he was in a room. But when he was around family and close friends he was a big goof he would laugh and joke and smile which was a gift of its own because the amount of times that i had to yell smile for a picture is wild . He was kind and gentle when it came to his son's and to his nieces. A different light shined in his eyes sweet and unfiltered moments watching him with his sons and his nieces was truly special. Watching him with his brother Bryan and my husband Chris was also something special so many fond memories so many "what is going? Nevermind I dont wanna know" followed by uncontrollable laughter from them. He is truly going to be missed love you buddy

“ Although I never met Darin, I do know some of the family and my heart aches for them and for everyone affected by his death. He sounds like an amazing young man. My prayer is for God to send His comfort and peace to each one of them.
