“ I went to Clemson with Darlene. She was absolutely one of my best and sweetest friends. We were ADPi's together and spent alot of time laughing, dancing, studying, talking, and just being friends. Darlene would do anything to help any body. She had a way of making everything okay. I am so saddened by he death. I will always cherish my fond memories of her and our times at Clemson, the beach, and road trips. Her children should be very proud that their mother had such a positive impact on so many lives. “ I am sorry to hear of your loss. Death is an enemy to us all. It is especially an enemy when it strike someone dear to us. God is more powerful than death, and he promise to get rid of this enemy once and for all. The Bible teaches: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." (ICorinthians 15:26) Then the words of Jesus found at John 5:28 will be fulfilled that reads: "Marvel not at this, for the hour is coming when all that are in the graves shall hear his voice and come forth."###imported-begin##Rosa Brown###imported-end##
