“ Dear Darrell...my friend and companion, You are a man of many seasons and have given me many blessings throughout our time together. The gifts you have given me will always be a part of me to carry forward through the rest of my life. I will always treasure you and our relationship. I am so saddened by your sudden death. I am deeply hurt that your last period of time on earth was spent with Denise Dvorak Blanton, a woman who has demonstrated to all of us her sociopathic behaviors. May God keep you in his ever loving care.##imported-begin##Janet##imported-end##

“ We meet Darrell 3 years ago when we came to Myrtle Beach with his sister for vacation. We stayed with Darrell and he made us feel very welcomed into his family. He was a very outgoing man. It was sad to leave him and his family. They were like family to us. We planed on coming back this year to visit him and his family. It is very sad to hear that he is no longer with us. He made a impact on our lives and we will miss him. Our condolences to his family.##imported-begin##The Schutzenhofers##imported-end##

“ Shocking news when I received word Darrell had passed. We had just talked last month about getting together with him and Denise at his place. I believe Darrell and I had know each other for some 35 or 36 years; served together as Master Instructors in the Air Force at Shaw AFB, SC and even played with a few cars here and there. We lost track of each other 20 years ago but finally getting together last year in Maggie Valley, NC for a few days of motorcycle riding. We had a great time revisiting the past and enjoying the moment. All was good! Darrell did his best to live life to the fullest and take care of things along the way. He was a good man and taken way too soon. I wish we had more time here in the later years together. Our condolences goes out to the family and friends near and far. We regret that we will not be able to attend the services. We will cherish the last memories of him enjoying riding and his comrades of new and old. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. “ We love and miss you Uncle Darrell! I think it is utterly ridiculous that so many days have passed before the services are going to be held, as family and friends have traveled from out of town and state to say their final goodbyes. Unlike others, some of us have been a part of Uncle Darrells life consistently, as opposed to only when it was convenient. Most importantly, I hope that you are resting in peace. You will be loved and missed more than words could express.##imported-begin##Heather##imported-end##
