“ Dear Pam and my sweet extended family... I'm checking in to let you know my Heart - Soul and Spirit are wide open for all the remembrances and grief this day must weigh on you.

While my age had caused me to not know David as much as I now wish - It is by all your guest's comments that I am enriched so of such a decent - loving man David was and how much he will be missed. I am grateful for that...

Such Souls are graced and empowered by your Love.... David, my Aunt Ann and Uncle Wally... are strongly felt today as it was your family who held myself and my siblings close and in person as children. Myself, with many sleepovers as my own mom was busy helping my dad heal. I am forever grateful of that.... Having a bed opened for me by your loving sacrifice.

I have so much more to share in this regard and will but for now, I hope you feel my and all your other loved ones - Love - Truly there is no such a greater power.

Draw from this - This day of loss - This day of passage - This day of Gathering - In Flesh and in Soul.

May David's Spirit be ever strong today to shoulder you in your need and grace you with his warming heart.

My own aid this day is the fond memory of "Jungle Croquet" that Dave and Kev set up several years ago at one of those precious family gatherings at the MacEachern's. I still hear the roars of laughter as the most sought after, treacherous terrain was navigated and played through. Though I do not recall who won the round, in reality, each of us present that day - We All Won.

May today be a celebration of David's many victory's of cheer and good fortune.

May today, David - Ann and Walters ever presence be there - for each of us who may wane in wonder of what life truly is.

Dear Pam, Ryan, Cindy, Kevin, Maureen and Willum... Please know I share your grief in the loss of David and know I send my deepest Love...

Cousin Brian

“ So many memories of our dear "Harpo" are flooding my brain today. From his outrageous Whist bids, to Malcolm -- his trusty Falcon, to the Buttercup days, to fun times at Gin and Earl's, to bungled camping trips. My deepest sympathies go out to Pam and David's entire family. One of the greats -- he will be dearly missed.

“ Oh I will miss you my dear brother!

I always loved talking to Dave, he was so well informed that he could talk to you about most any subject with a depth of understanding and an incredible memory for facts.

It was amazing to play Pictionary with him because his knowledge of trivial was so extraordinary that there was no way that you could win against him.

As a Honda owner, I always knew who to call when I had a problem that no one could figure out. He'd not only know immediately what was wrong and how to repair it, but could give me a detailed lesson on whatever system was involved. I loved talking to him about cars.

We've had so many laughs over the years and have thoroughly enjoyed connecting over our Sunday Zoom meetings with Dave perched in his lounge chair with a Caribbean beach scene in the background or virtual sunglasses on. He was a wiz at all things online and played many games with people all around the world.

Most of all, I am going to miss Dave's huge heart. He loved his family so much and found being a Grandfather the greatest expression of that unconditional love. He was a wise council to Randy and Ryan and a devoted partner to Pam who he so loved!

How wonderful that they were able to spend these last years in South Carolina as they had always dreamed of moving to. After so many excursions to a variety of Caribbean Islands, they had found a little bit of paradise for themselves.

Now he is in the ultimate paradise with Mom and Dad, Grammy and Grammy and all those who have loved and supported him beyond the veil. I know that he is already watching over us and have felt his presence several times over this past weekend. He is free of all his pain and suffering and happy to be by our sides.

Love you Dave, your proud to be your sister, Cindy

And how could I ever forget how much he loved his friends, his brother and sisters, aunts and uncles and the huge bevy of cousins!!! He was always there for us with a quick smile, that wonderful laugh and an 'I Love You' as he'd say goodbye.

*Dave was a Honda Master Technician which was their highest Service position.
They chose him for yearly specialized trainings with those of this high status from all over the country.
He was the point person for any complex unsolvable problems.
Vehicles with issues that no one else could solve were sent to him.
His mix of deep intelligence, breath of experience as well as a detailed filing system that he devised to include all service notices enabled him to excel at the top of his profession.*

Although we only saw you guys on occasion, we all had a blast when we did get together. I remember asking Dave "what vegetables do you eat?". He will be missed. Please know that we are thinking of you and your family Pam.
