“ Ashton, Glenda and Micheal I am sorry to hear of your loss. I pray God will be to you everything you need him to be right now. We know that God promised that He will never leave us nor forsake us. When my dad died back in October of 2003 I was crushed. I still miss him and I always will. In dealing with the loss of David it will never be easy but I hope with time it becomes more bearable. Here is a verse that has helped me through the passing of my dad. Nahum 1:7 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him. You are in our prayers!###imported-begin##Todd, Renda, Tristan and Mikaela Phillips###imported-end##

“ Ashton, Glenda and Michael, I was so sorry to hear about your loss. Although I have never had the honor of meeting David, I have kept him in prayer over the years. I realize I am a novice in conveying a message of grief, but I have learned from your example and word that God's grace is sufficient for you. I recognize that they are easy words to say to another, but in your lives I also note that these words are the foundation of your character, and as such are the greatest words I can state. I know you rely daily upon His grace. I cannot be there in body, but my spirit and prayers I do commend to you during this season of grief in your lives. My parting words are some paraphrased words written by Paul to us Gentiles: I desire that you - Aston, Glenda and Michael, may know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God. God be with you Tom##imported-begin##Tom Witcher##imported-end##
