“ Dave and I were good buddies in High School, He bought my 1937 Oldsmobile from me. We decided to take her (Bertha) down to the Delaware river and pretend to push her in and take photos. Unfortunately, a ship came by and made a big wave and stuck her. I ran about 2 miles to get my car and pull her out.

“ Dave, So many lifelong memories. I still talk about when we came to visit you in Delaware how you took my dad and Uncle Donald to the liquor store to stock up as the prices were cheaper than PA. Big Chuckle. And you took the best picture of me, that I still treasure. RIP kind sir, you will be missed.
