“ David and I got together long ago when we both had Commodore 64 computers. He gave me some lessons on spreadsheets and we swapped some software. He was very business minded. I remember stories of his marathon drives from Alaska to Myrtle beach and back. Others were about his business there. Later when Joni and I moved we became neighbors and he would stop by or we'd chat at the end of his driveway. We talked of property management and what some clients will do to test a manager. He shared with me about his service in Vietnam, what he did with explosives. David didn't brag. I didn't know of his Bronze Star, but I'm not surprised that he earned one. Thanks to David for his service to our country. He was a very smart man and is missed by all that knew him.

“ I’m very saddened to have Dave leave us. I will always remember him as one of the most interesting people I have met. I so enjoyed our talks and dinners together. I loved hearing about your life, time in Vietnam and your perspective things. You will be missed by family and friends. Thank you for your service and go peacefully to your final Rendezvous With Destiny. I am honored to call you my friend.
