“ A year has gone by and no great changes. I miss you more now than I have ever. I listen to the kids talk about how much they miss you and it breaks my heart. I miss you so much it hurts. I miss venting to you and our visits about life. I am so sorry spike. I love you! Your sister... Ashley Atkins-Froschauer

“ It feels still so unreal. Words can't even explain the pain. The kids pray for you every night that they are here. I know going on to heaven is never supposed to be so hard as to see us all in pain. I have needed you so many times to talk to and I just look at your urn and say the crazy things we went through. God has blessed me with an awesome angel. Please watch over us and help us through. I love you spike!

“ Spike being in your life and even being your sister to love you unconditionally regardless of your imperfections. You were such a perfect brother to me. I miss seeing you smile and laughing at all my not funny stuff I did.

Getting into so much trouble when we're growing up makes me love those memories even more. I can tell you all the kids are struggling knowing your not gonna be coming for visits. But I know that you are with us everyday. I feel your presences in the house. Spike I know your not dealing with stress or feeling alone. I love you more than words can express. You'll always be my little big brother. Not goodbye but till we meet again. I love you spiker biker!
