David Earle Kelly, age 22, passed away on Thursday, December 3, 2015 at Grand Strand Regional Medical Center, due to injuries from a car accident. Born on September 19, 1993 in Newnan, GA, David grew up along the Grand Strand and attended local schools. He graduated from St. James High School in 2012. His passions throughout life included skateboarding, surfing, riding dirt bikes, and living life on the edge. He had many unique and meaningful tattoos that were a source of pride for him.

David was a talented young man who enjoyed being outdoors and working with his hands. He was very proud and excited to be an employee with Parsons Brinckerhoff as a Construction Inspector Aide 2.

Survivors include his sister, Amanda L. Kelly of Surfside Beach; his mother, Paula J. Kelly also of Surfside Beach; his father, John F. Kelly and his fiancée Beverly of Myrtle Beach, as well as many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Although David's life was tragically cut short, his life will continue in others through organ donation.
