“ Dear Peggy, Rose, Teresa and James - I just heard the unfortunate news and I wanted to express my sincere condolences. David always struck me as a wonderful person and father, and although I worked for him briefly, I never considered him a "boss" - just a friend I also worked for. He will be greatly missed. My prayers are with you all through this difficult time. God Bless you all - Dan##imported-begin##Dan Nale##imported-end##

“ During the past five years that I have known Dave, I came to know and respect him as the finest and most knowledgeable building inspector of my acquaintance - this covers a multitude of building inspectors from Maryland to Florida, Myrtle Beach to Memphis, Tenn. No matter what "difficult" code question I presented him, he would provide an immediate answer or research the building code and provide one without unreasonable delay. Even more important than knowing him in his profession, I came to consider him as a friend and will miss him dearly! My condolences and best wishes to the family.##imported-begin##Richard Garris##imported-end##

“ Peggy, Teresa, Mary, and James: We are saddened to hear of your loss and are thinking of you all. Unfortunately, we will be away during the visitation and service in David's memory, but we will be with you in thought and prayer. The few times we had the pleasure of David's company and tremendous hospitality are memorable. You helped us in time of need, and if there is ever anything we can do to repay the Barra family's kindness and caring, please do not hesitate to call on us. It would be so good to see you all again and meet the newest members of your family, so we regret not being able to do that now and hope we will have that opportunity soon. May you keep your husband's and father's memory and spirit close to your hearts through this difficult time and forever. The impression he left is strong, warm, generous, and lasting. Sincerely, Jack, Austin, Blake & Vicky###imported-begin###Jack, Austin, Blake & Vicky###imported-end##
