“ Our condolences are with all the family. We are a Christ United Home church and we go every third Sunday to have church with the residents at the Palmettos. There is where we met Mr. Davis for the first time. He would always attend and He was such a joy to talk to. He and I had many conversations. He told us about his daughter Gwen and we would pray for her. We really loved him and he will be truly missed. We will be praying for all of you today and be thinking of you. God Bless you all. Love Debbie Causey and all my Sisters.

“ I remember Uncle Davis always pushing forward to do our best and saying don't settle for doing average grades and work always do your very best. As I became a matured as an Adult I appreciated understood the importance in his advice. Thanks to Uncle Davis I'll always remember him. My son Chris was born on Uncle Davis birthday September 2nd, 1987. Of course this day has always been special and I always remembered his birthday and called him or visited him if I could. We all have lots of family memories which we cherish always. ❤️🙏
