“ My buddy Dean, she was a joy and loved by so many. Never met a stranger and loved to talk, something she and I had a lot in common. I am so sorry I have not responded sooner. I leave it up to Lewis to check these and he has forgotten to tell me. I loved living around her, working with her and sharing the same interest. RIP my friend and God comfort and strengthen her family.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“Ms. Mixon was always a person who I looked up too growing up. I remember her always having joy and excitement in her heart as she carried on conversations with people. Even as a child, for me, it was always a pleasure just to sit and talk with her. I am so very sorry to hear of her passing. Our Thoughts and prayers go out to the family along with our deepest sympathy. May God bless you in your time of sorrow and may he comfort you as you lay to rest a wonderful, beautiful sister in Christ.
