“ I have just seen this. I was thinking about Debbie lately. We were neighbors when her daughter, Gina passed away. She was a very dear friend back in those days. I have not seen her for many years.

What a sweet and kind person. I will never forget walking around her apartment at the time of her great loss. My son was Gina's age at that time. She asked Cary to walk around her room and find something that he would like to remember her mom. It was a little stuffed Alf. We still have this today. We have never forgotten her She is with Gina now. When I think of her, I will think of her in that way.
