“ My family and I moved to Conway from Md many years ago. We moved next the Miss Deborah and her family. She welcomed us graciously to the area. My two youngest children were always at her home. She introduced me to Langston Baptist church at a time in my life that I needed a church home and guidance. She always had the biggest smile! She will be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Anderson family.

Dear James and family, Very sorry to hear about Deborah's passing, but we know it is a "home going" and that is what gives us comfort that words will never be able to describe. My Mother, Doretha, and I will keep you all in our prayers, knowing that the peace of our Father will rest upon you until we all join together for the ultimate family reunion - very soon.
