“ I just heard that my dear beautiful friend, Debbie Brown list her battle with cancer. She was a 4 time survivor. She fought so hard. The first time I met her was at the Relay for Life about 5-6 yrs ago. She had infectious love and loved life so much. She introduced me to her new Husband who she said, He is the sweetest person she had met. She said he was so wonderful and treated her like a baby. She loved him do much. The next time I saw her she was telling me she was doing great and had been traveling and living life. I was so very happy for her. We became good friends She found out I had moved to Myrtle Beach and was at the Relay for Life here at Market Common she came her for it. She would always buy luminaries for her family that had passed. She was a very special lady who loved her family, especially her husband, her sweet pet and her children and especially her grandchildren . She was a precious friend whom I'm gonna miss. She loved wearing her caps . I am gonna miss our texts . I know she is home in Heaven . She fought a hard fight 4 times beating cancer . I will always remember my special friend !!!! “ My heart is with all of you. I know how much Debbie loved and she loved each one of you. I just hope Cousin Debbie knew how much I love her and you all too. Even though sickness can be known, it does not prepare us for when our loved ones are gone. Losing you my beautiful Cousin will take much more than time to heal. It's going to take many memories, many pictures, many videos, many tears, many laughs, many nights, many days, many weeks, months and years for us. For to know you is to love you oh so very much, for everyone you ever knew there's been a life you touched and I thank you for touching mine.
